

Explosive sales

An explosion at a local grocery store causes many to flee in a panic!

Many believe that it was due to negligence; however, firefighters believe that it was actually a case of arson. The owner had evaded mandatory inspections for the past 4 years. One first responder, Alex Jones, had this to say.

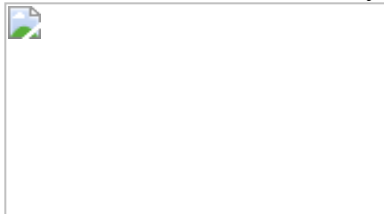

photo by Bruce Rock Police

We have found multiple pieces of evidence that points to this being a very rare case of arson in order to collect on a large sum of insurance money. We will keep the public updated on this as we find more information regarding this case.

- Alex Jones of the Mattawan Fire Dept.

Detectives and first responders have been working for the past 48 hours to try and find new leads. Stay up to date on the latest news and catch up with us by following our Facebook page!